

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Sharon Parker-Daniels, President
Weiss Capital Management, Inc.
561-515-8558

Weiss Money Management Announces Corporate Name Change to Weiss Capital Management, Inc.

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla., June 6, 2005 – Weiss Money Management, Inc., a professional wealth management firm, announced today that its articles of incorporation have been amended to change the company name from Weiss Money Management, Inc. to Weiss Capital Management, Inc. The name change is part of a national rebranding effort to more closely identify the company with the direction of current and future business opportunities. Its corporate website address is <http://www.weisscapitalmanagement.net>.

“Weiss Capital Management, Inc. is expanding its business into institutional money management, and alternative investments. Its subsidiary Weiss Capital Securities, Inc. is expanding its business into full-service retail brokerage. This name change more accurately reflects our new direction,” explained Sharon Parker-Daniels, president of Weiss Capital Management, Inc. and Weiss Capital Securities, Inc.

Weiss Capital Management, Inc. is an SEC-registered investment advisor engaged in the business of professionally managing the investment assets of individuals, pension plans, trust accounts, institutional accounts, charitable organizations, foundations, and investment companies. The firm, a “fee-only” investment advisor, is committed to helping investors achieve their investment goals by offering a full range of money management and investment services, including customized investment programs. Since 1980, Weiss Capital Management, Inc.’s mission has been to provide investors with professional financial management services.

###